I am thoughtful because:

I see the best in people and maintain a positive mindset. I understand different sides of a story and enjoy working together to find a suitable solution.

I show loyalty because:

When I feel at home somewhere and there is mutual respect, I enjoy contributing to the growth of the organization. When that's the case, I don't look for something else easily – instead, I look for new challenges and ways to bring stability within that organization.

I am prepared because:

I like to plan everything in advance so I know what to expect. When an unexpected situation occurs, the information I already have helps me to improvise effectively.

How I help shape the future:

I try to maintain an open and trustworthy attitude, so when people are dealing with something, they feel comfortable sharing it with me and I can help them. In addition, I aim to keep learning and developing myself to become the best version of who I can be – and to contribute as strongly as possible to the team.
